THE NATION'S NATAL DAY,
GLORIOUSLY CELEBRATED IN STANFORD.
THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE DRAWN TO TOWN.
WHO ENJOY THE FESTIVITIES OF PATRIOTISM'S OWN.
A CREDIBLE EXHIBITION TO ALL CONCERNED.

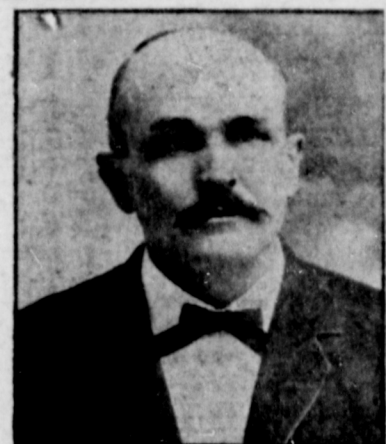

The glorious 4th was gloriously celebrated here, the occasion proving the reddest letter day in the history of Stanford for many moons. The weather was pleasant, excellent order was observed and but few minor incidents occurred that even slightly marred the general good cheer of the day. Grand Marshal J. C. Florence, with Capt.

JUDGE J. P. BAILEY,
Who with Mayor Menefee, led the procession.

Penny's sword and fixings, was a typical officer, while the two Harveys, McRoberts and Helm, filled their positions as assistants, with dignity and credit. Many of the houses along the line of march floated "old glory" and other patriotic bunting, while from the St. Asaph was blown the breeze the large silk flag that Capt. Penny's company raised at Manila, Porto Rico, after firing a round of cartridges as a salute.

The procession moved with unusual promptness from a point on Danville Avenue and was led by Mayor Menefee and Judge Bailey in a decorated buggy. Judge W. R. Carson, who has been either a magistrate or police judge here for 30 years, followed and then came the floats.

J. C. FLORENCE, CHIEF MARSHAL.

J. C. McClary dressed as Uncle Sam drove a handsome float, with an elevated seat on which sat Miss Essie Burch, who very admirably represented the Goddess of Liberty.

The fire company under Chief I. M. Bruce came next with decorated hose and hook and ladder carriages.

Band wagon decorated and bearing a sign of the Democrat.

Uncle Sam (J. N.) Saunders with 13 little girls, representing the 13 original colonies.

Beazley & Carter, large float loaded with groceries, pretty girls and handsome boys.

Beazley Bros' livery stable, decorated carriage driven by E. H. Beazley and containing several young ladies.

HARVEY HELM, ASSISTANT MARSHAL.

The INTERIOR JOURNAL was royally represented by lovely Miss Jennie Warren clad in a dress made of INTERIOR

MISS JENNIE WARREN.

JOURNALS, with scores of pictures of Goebel, and hat and parasol also made of the paper. By her side in the char-lot sat Lt. Rowan Saufley in his regimentals and the whole formed a picture that was highly complimented on all sides. As they passed along Miss Warren gracefully handed to the on lookers copies of the paper she represented hot from the press.

Bedell Chancellor, flag bedecked carriage, containing his family.

A number of Odd Fellows in fancy vehicle.

Ed Wilkinson, painted and dressed in bunting, in large float, shaving Joe Nevius with a huge razor, which he strapped on a side of leather.

Carter & Straub, millers, float representing their business, with sacks of their various brands of manufacture.

The Louisville Store and J. T. Jones, the plumber, Negro singers in a big wagon, which showed up both businesses.

J. H. Baughman & Co. had the most comprehensive display in the procession, everything they make or handle being shown.

Higgins & McKinney showed a wheat field, with their various implements of agriculture in a float, in which there were many happy young people.

J. H. Meier had large samples of his bread and other products, with a couple of boys going for ice cream with a zest.

B. K. Wearen & Son showed plows, other implements and vehicles, including a fine buggy, in which sat John H. Shanks and Ed Hale courting.

Wm. Beck, bedecked carriage containing his family.

A. B. Florence, comprehensive advertisement of his business and Obelisk flour. He threw mirror advertisements of the latter right and left, which the boys scrambled to get.

I. M. Bruce had his wife and some young ladies in a prettily decorated vehicle.

Severance & Son had a very large float from which they threw base balls, bats, caps and belts and created great interest and enthusiasm.

Warren & Shanks had a large cook stove and other things they keep on hand.

W. W. Withers had the prettiest of the conceptions—"A Soldier's Dream." It was a model bed chamber on a bed in which Sergt. J. H. Jones lay and dreamed he was enjoying the luxurious surroundings.

As pretty as was this float it would have been much prettier had the 100 feet of smilax and eight dozen carnation pinks which were ordered for it, come in time.

Shelton M. Saufley didn't let the Stanford Female College get left, but on a gayly caparisoned steed carried its colors in great shape.

Mrs. Dr. Steele Bailey, Mrs. St. Clair and Miss Isabella Bailey were in their handsome trap, which was beautifully dressed.

Cook & Farmer had a creditable float telling about their up-to-date tennorial establishment.

Last but not least came the float of Craig & Hocker—a model drug store, with the "Elixir of Life," with which Warren renews his youth like the eagle.

After passing down Main Street, the procession turned into Whitley Avenue, thence a cross street to Logan Avenue and then back to Main. It was after 11 o'clock, when it got back to the court-house, where after the band had played some good pieces and the choir had sung some patriotic airs, Miss Essie Burch from her high perch on her chariot read the "Declaration of Independence" with much elocutionary effect. There was more music and a patriotic address by the rising young orator, J. Richard Bush, who maintained the fine reputation he is making as a speaker. Mrs. R. P. Adams, of Lexington, sang "Old Kentucky Home" with charming effect, there was more music by band and choir and the morning exercises, after announcement by General Manager A. A. Warren, were over.

In the afternoon after listening to the Hon. Fontaine Fox Bobbitt soar to empyrean heights on the wings of the American eagle and Col. T. P. Hill fire a volley of fervid oratory replete with patriotism, the crowd enjoyed the races. The bicycle race from the College to Lancaster street, 3 entries, was won by Babe DeBorde, the 200 yard foot race for men, 6 entries, by Ed Nevius, 100 yards for boys, 7 entries, by Walter Jones and the Negro race, 4 entries, by Charley Baughman. The other races did not fill and were declared off.

Geo. B. Wearen was clerk of the races and general utility man, who proved a real utilitarian.

The fire company gave an exhibition of their skill in fire fighting at 3 o'clock. The alarm sounded and the cry of "fire" went around. The ladders promptly responded and in short order put out an imaginary fire in the Opera House. This feature created both alarm and admiration, alarm because few knew that it was a false one.

The fireworks under the skillful handling of Messrs A. A. Warren, J. C. McClary, W. W. Withers and Joe Severance proved a fitting finale to the many interesting features of the day. Thousands of people lined the side walks and filled court square and cheered lustily when some of the best pieces were fired. We have seen Payn, himself, give a less creditable spectacle than the management gave us Tuesday night.

At Warren, the originator of the scheme to celebrate, was almost omnipresent. He saw to all the details, sang in the choir, blew a horn in the band, ran the fireworks and did many other things too numerous to mention. "Eh har, big day ain't it?" he would say, while taking little credit to himself for it.

The management asks us to state as emphatically as can be that it had no part nor lot in the barbarous gander neck pulling, which alone marred the doings of the day. The poor bird was suspended to a wire for hours and when finally a number of young men rode rapidly under it and tried to pull off its head its shrieks of pain were pitiable to hear. Every body was relieved when Logan Wood at last jerked off the head. Gander head pulling is the relic of a dark age and ought not to be permitted in these days of law against cruelty to animals. It was now 10 o'clock, the exercises having lasted for 12 hours and proved from start to finish what Stanford can do when she tries. The management is to be heartily congratulated for its efforts and every body, who took part, for the earnest manner in which they entered into the scheme to celebrate the glorious fourth and give the people a day of clean and praise-worthy enjoyment.

The American delegates scored a great success in obtaining from the Peace Conference a unanimous vote in favor of having the question of private property at sea in time of war dealt with at a special conference to be summoned hereafter.

Fire in Paris, Tenn., destroyed 20 buildings, including several business blocks. Fireworks caused the blaze, Loss $175,000.

Fire at Pratt City, Ala., destroyed 40 buildings, including the principal business blocks; loss $53,000, insurance $8,000.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE. Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have procured their matches worth for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and stronger nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

The Boyle county teachers' association will be held at Junction City the week of Aug. 7.

James Woodridge, a prominent merchant and farmer of Russell county, died at his home of consumption.

Luther Ware, of Danville, won the 16 mile bicycle race over a rough turnpike at Lexington in 52 minutes.

The Advocate says that a black snake got Lucien Moore's lip in its mouth and wouldn't let go till it thundered.

Judge Walter Evans spent the 4th of July with the Hon. John W. Yerkes and family, but his visit was purely social.

Joe Young, of Adair, fell from a hay wagon on a pitch fork, which was driven almost through his body, fatally injuring him.

Monticello will likely have another bank. J. R. Oatts, of that place, and Joseph Gibson, of Somerset, are working to that end.

At Valley View, Mrs. Bettie Kelley, aged 60, was found dead in a field, whether she had gone to catch a horse. Foul play is suspected.

Mrs. Mattie McCreary Bronston, of Richmond, left $25,000 to Gov. James B. McCreary and $25,000 to his son, R. H. McCreary, of Chicago.

Dan P. Dineen, the popular Queen & Crescent passenger conductor, rejoices in the arrival of a fine son, weighing 11 pounds, at his home in Somerset, who has been christened John S. Dineen.

I. C. Ramsey's livery stable with 13 horses, and C. H. Bustin's barn, along with a large coach, burned at Monticello Tuesday night. Ramsey's loss is $3,000, insurance $2,000. Bustin's loss, $2,000, insurance $1,200.

Oliver Johnson was arrested in Danville and taken to Liberty. He was discovered at the home of a Negress with Miss Lena Staten, a respectable young white woman of Casey. When the officers entered the room he was trying to induce her to drink from a bottle supposed to contain drugged wine. Miss Staten said Johnson had promised to take her home in his buggy and had brought her to the Negro's residence by telling her it was a boarding-house where they would get dinner.

The new Danville Fair Association has been organized and a fair will be given Aug. 30th, 31st and Sept. 1st. The officers are: President, E. W. Lillard; First Vice President, T. B. Bright; Second Vice President, Col. W. M. Hughes; Secretary, Henry C. Bright; Assistant Secretary, Will Woodcock; Treasurer, Frank N. Lee. Directors, A. E. Hundley, C. P. Cecil, Jr., Geo. Coulter, J. Granville Cecil, Jr., E. S. Rowland, J. K. McRoberts, D. P. Rowland, I. M. Dunn, C. M. Rice, Sam McDowell, Charlie N. Smith, Guy Wiseman, R. D. Bruce and J. L. Frohman.

In addition to the regular stock show there will be cake walks and other amusing features, including the celebrated Newsboys' Band, of Louisville Legion, which went to Porto Rico with Gen. Castelman and his boys during the war with Spain.—Advocate.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Badie Walls, 16, and Miss Eva McDaniell, 14, were married at Liberty. John W. Stringer, 27, and Miss Nanannie Mason, 21, celebrated the 4th by getting Eld. Joseph Ballou to bind them heart and hand.

A dispatch from Middleburg says that Sheriff James Brown, of Casey, and Miss Mattie Mayfield, of Lincoln county, were married at Stanford on the night of the 3rd at 8:30 o'clock, but if they did we can not find out where the knot was tied. We congratulate the groom all the same and whether it is true or not it ought to be true, as it is high time he was getting a wife if he intends to.

Miss Leontine Chisholm, the wealthiest young woman in Georgia, was romantically married to Walter P. Andrews, a young lawyer of Atlanta, at South Hampton, Long Island, New York, where the bride was visiting her guardian. Miss Chisholm has been one of the Atlanta social leaders for six years, and her hand was sought by many beaux. Mr. Andrews is a poor man but love laughed at poverty.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

THE EAGLE, KING OF ALL BIRDS.

Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, styes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold at Penny's at 25 cents.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JULY 7, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL.
For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM.
For Attorney General, R. J. BRECKINRIDGE.
For Auditor, GUS G. COULTER.
For Treasurer, S. W. HAGER.
or Secretary of State, C. BRECK HILL.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction, HARRY MCCHESNEY.
For Commissioner of Agriculture, ION B. NALL.
For Railroad Commissioner, C. C. MCHORD.
Representative, M. F. NORTH.

MILTON H. SMITH, Esq., president of the L. & N., answers the charge of the Courier-Journal that it uses its secret service fund to carry its point in partisan politics by denying that it has been active in the matter, except when it thinks it is confronted by possible hostile and oppressive legislation and saying that it will "immediately and of its own accord quit politics, so soon as all parties unite in determining that the material interests of the State shall be justly protected and promoted. Until this is done, it will, while abusing no privilege granted, use all of its legal remedies to assert and maintain its rights." Mr. Smith also takes a crack at Mr. Goebel and pays his respects to Mr. McChord, both of whom will doubtless be heard from in the matter and very effectively. We take no stock in the hue and cry against corporations, because they are such and it is apparently popular to do so, but we are for the enforcement of the law against them as against individuals and if the L. & N. has done those things that it ought not to do and which are generally charged, it should be held to a strict accountability. Mr. Smith's card shows among other things that he can handle a pen almost as well as he can a big railroad corporation, and that in a battle with cards he can hold a good hand with the greatest of editors.

THE announcement of the retirement of R. Lee Davis from the editorial control of the Richmond Register strikes us with surprise and regret, as we had not heard of his intention to do so. Mr. S. F. Rock, formerly of the Climax, took charge with the last issue of that paper and he will retain Mr. H. R. Pickels at the head of the mechanical department. Mr. Davis is too good a newspaper man to remain long out of the business.

SINCE the American people began to celebrate Independence day, the 4th of July was never so generally and so largely celebrated as this year. Everywhere the American flag floats, and that is nearly all over the world, the day was made memorable. The sun didn't set on the celebrations that day, nor does it ever set on the possessions of the United States. Great indeed is this country and greater does it grow all the time.

THE Lexington Leader does the Glasgow News, a former Hardin paper, great injustice by publishing an article renouncing its allegiance to the party which nominated Mr. Goebel, and crediting it to that paper and that simon pure democratic sheet should call Editor Roberts to law. The News has not only declared its support of the ticket, but keeps it nailed to its masthead.

HERE is one for the boys of the Kentucky press to work out while they are waiting for the firing to begin again: If Dick Knott lived in Paris which side would he take in the Dreyfus case? This looks easy enough, and we will present the person sending the first correct answer with a subscription account of two years' standing against a citizen of Clay county.—Glasgow News. The wrong side. Send the bill.

TAYLOR now claims several hundred more votes than are necessary to nominate him on the first ballot for governor. But what shall it profit him, if he gains the whole number and then loses out in November as he is sure to do? The party that puts up such a man as Taylor, when it has a Stone and a Pratt asking for the honor, courts the defeat that is already assured.

WM. REMINGTON'S new Paris Democrat is before us and is just such a paper as one might expect from that experienced newspaper man. It is a five-column, all home print quarto and seems destined to make room for itself in a town already well supplied with newspapers.

A GEORGIA paper suggests that Gov. Bradley adopt the same plan with the Clay county feudists that the United States has with the Cubans—pay them $75 each for their rifles. 'Twouldn't work in Clay though. They would take the $75 and buy a whole arsenal of guns.

THE Louisville Dispatch pretends to be hesitating whether it will support the ticket or not, after doing it all the dirt it can. As for our part we hope it will decide, after consultation with the L. & N., not to support it. Since its alleged sell out, its support is worse than its condemnation. Besides with the Courier-Journal flying the ticket under a very game democratic cock, the existence of the Dispatch is no longer necessary or desirable.

BILL BECKNER, of Winchester, who by accident was elected to fill out a term in Congress, and of whom the late Senator Beck said that he had seen 20 pictures of Judas Iscariot, no two of which were alike, but all looked like Bill Beckner, is out in a "keed" in the Dispatch saying that he loves his country better than party regularity and will not support the ticket. Good. Bill is a hoodoo to any cause and a Jonah to any ticket.

THE Louisville Post is tearing its little nether garment in its effort to say mean things about Goebel, but Editor Knott is gnawing a file. He has no standing in a democratic court and what he says has weight at all with democrats. There are those who say he is subsidized, but the most charitable construction of his words and conduct would be that he is crazy.

We plead guilty to the soft impeachment made by the London Echo that we were a strenuous advocate of Goebel, his election law and all, but denounce the statement that we would have kicked out of the traces had he not been nominated. We stated before hand that the work of the convention would have our hearty approval, no matter who it nominated.

IT is said that over 300,000 drummers have been thrown out of jobs by the formation of trusts, made possible by republican maladministration. As these fellows are all good talkers, they will do some lively talking against the party in power and it safe to estimate that they will influence at least enough votes to make them count 1,000,000 for Bryan.

We regret to see our esteemed friend and fellow newspaper servant, Green R. Keller, of the Carlisle Mercury, take his defeat for Secretary of State so ungracefully. He says he will support the ticket, but at the same time says things he may regret in the future. A life long democrat oughtn't to sully his record by writing as he does.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL never has to say it will support the democratic ticket. That goes without saying. And this time we are more enthusiastic over it than ever. There couldn't have been made a better ticket than the one that heads this page. In November it will be Eclipse first, the rest nowhere.

If the republican convention will throw 'em all overboard and nominate a decent man like Col. John W. Yerkes for governor, the party might be able to give the democrats some trouble, but with Taylor leading a forlorn hope, our victory will be an easy one.

JOHN RHEA is serving his last term in Congress. The voters do not take to tin horn politicians and will retire him in favor of James M. Richardson, prison commissioner and editor of the Glasgow Times, who is as bright and brainy as he is deserving and popular.

CINCINNATI has a dog that plays the piano, but if he can't do it any better than some of those who play it around here, it is to be hoped that he will be immediately sent to the sausage factory.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

The auditor's statement shows that there is $395,148.70 in the State treasury.

The social labor party has put out a State ticket headed by one Schmutz, of Louisville, for governor.

It is telegraphed that "Quinine Jim" McKenzie, who was minister to Peru under Cleveland, is about to lose his eye sight.

Ex-Gov. Stone, of Missouri, tried to kill a reporter who asked him an impertinent question about the receivership of a certain bank.

Judge J. C. Chenault, editor of the Richmond Climax, is a candidate for county judge, a position he creditably held for 10 years ending in 1894.

Secretary Gage says the exodus of gold need cause no concern. He does not think it can exceed $20,000,000, and says it will be returned when we want it.

A special election for a congressman to succeed the late Silver Dick Bland, in the 8th Missouri district, will be held Aug. 29 and the woods are full of candidates.

There is a probability that John R. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, may be nominated by the democrats for governor of Ohio, who will boom him for president.

The Courier-Journal now appears with the democratic ticket at its masthead, but the Dispatch is muzzling and grumbling to itself like a nigger wench with the rheumatics—Nelson Record.

Chairman A. W. Young has called a meeting of the democratic State central and executive committees at Frankfort, July 11, to discuss plans for the campaign and to transact other business.

Mott Ayres, of the State Central Committee of the First district, says: Aside from a few crossroad railroad lawyers who have received their orders from headquarters, no opposition can be found to the ticket.

On a writ of habeas corpus Collector of Internal Revenue Comingsore was discharged from custody of the sheriff of Kenton county, who held him for contempt of a State court, by Judge Evans, of the United States court.

Senator Goebel, ex-Senator Blackburn, Judge Tarvin, Judge Redwine and Senator J. M. Thomas, of Paris, are already at Estill Springs, and others are expected. The object of the meeting is to map out a plan of campaign.

Hon. John W. Lewis, of Washington county, one of the big republicans of his section of the State, is among those who think it would be fatal to the party to nominate Taylor, or any other strong factionist for governor at the Lexington convention next week.

Charles W. Bell, principal of the Harrodsburg graded schools, has announced as a candidate for the office of superintendent of public instruction, subject to the action of the republican State convention at Lexington. Prof. Bell married Miss Maude Myles, a grand-daughter of Mrs. Hannah Poet.

The Madison county democrats, in convention at Richmond, renominated Hon. W. W. Combs for representative, and adopted resolutions pledging their hearty and unwavering support to the entire State ticket nominated at the recent Louisville convention, and to earnestly work for its success in November.

Gov. Bradley says "there is absolutely no truth in the statement of a Louisville custom house official that I will place Mr. Taylor in nomination at the Lexington convention next week, for the governorship. If his name is not presented to that body until I do it, he will not be before the convention for any office."

After reading all the law books on the subject and finding no remedy that is feasible, Gov. Bradley says: "If any man can figure out to me how under the existing conditions of kinship and thorough organization I can satisfactorily put an end to the Clay county trouble and punish the guilty ones, I will resign my office in his favor."

A new party to be known as the United Christian Party was launched at Des Moines, Ia., Tuesday, when it nominated a State ticket. Its platform is: "We believe in direct legislation of the people, and, in order to make a government, a government from God through Christ, we should be governed in all things, law making included, by the standard: 'What would Jesus do?'"

Remembering his own experience Col. Breckinridge says in the Lexington Herald: "Can't the women of Lexington get together and offer a reward for the capture of 'King' Goebel? If this method should prove on the present occasion as effective in ridding the State of a nuisance, as it was in a former instance, the feminine portion of our population will again deserve our undying gratitude."

Col. Ike Morgan, of Harrodsburg told the Cincinnati Enquirer that Goebel will get the full strength of the democratic party in our county (Mercer). He was our second choice. The State will go democratic by 30,000, and we do not propose to let John Whallen, in Louisville, and the manipulators in the Eleventh Congressional district count us out again as they did in 1896.

In opening his campaign for U. S. Senator from Texas, Joseph W. Bailey said that if McKinley would step down and Bryan should take his place at the helm of the nation the war in the Philippines would stop in 48 hours. He said history told of a Roman proconsul to Sicily who stole $4,000,000 and he declared that a military governor of the Philippines appointed by Hanna would steal $400,000,000, half of which he would convert into a conscience fund and contribute it to the republican campaign fund.

Champ Clark, the Missouri congressman, says that nothing but death can prevent Bryan from being the next nominee for president. He grows stronger all the time and if things continue as they are now he will be elected hands down. We will not only reaffirm, but readopt literatim et verbatim the Chicago platform of 1896, and add strong anti-trust and anti-expansion planks. Also planks, strong as can be made, against a large standing army and in favor of an income tax and of economy.

WHO BILLY IS.—W. C. Owens has issued a statement that he will vote the republican ticket in November, but this seems to have created no consternation in Georgetown, or elsewhere. Mr. Owens is the man who was once elected speaker of the Kentucky House of representatives and the next session couldn't muster a dozen votes. He is also the man who was bogged into Congress by the skin of his teeth, by the combined efforts of democrats, republicans, prohibitionists, women and preachers, over Col. Billy Breckinridge, when the latter was under heavy fire, and made such a record during one term that he was not seriously mentioned for another. We don't think there will be found a very big hole in the democratic party at the place W. C. Owens broke out.—Owensboro Messenger.

Pleasant Wynn and Catlett Tipton were hanged at Sevierville, Tenn., Wednesday, for the whitecap murder of William Whaley and wife. Both confessed.

The Cumberland Coal and Coke company, organized to operate coal mines mainly in Tennessee, has been incorporated in New Jersey with a capital of $2,000,000.

The Gayoso Hotel, one of the landmarks of Memphis, was destroyed by fire with several other buildings. One life was lost and several firemen seriously injured.

Pres. Sexton, who has been at large since he killed Ed Cummings and Mrs. Sarah Trumbo, in Bath county, two years ago, has surrendered to the authorities at Owingsville.

Gov. Bradley directs the adjutant general to muster into the State Guard the nine Louisville companies organized by Legion veterans under the auspices of the board of trade.

Five thousand eight hundred red men in the employ of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company are on a strike on account of the attempt of the company to introduce an objectionable lamp.

Of the 14 men charged with taking A. E. Woolbright from his field and after tying him to a tree, giving him a severe thrashing, 11 of them were held over to the circuit court at the examining trial just completed at Bowling Green. He wants $25,000 damages also from the men at the rate of $1,000 for each of the 25 lashes he got.

The famous Fields-Adkins case, in which Jesse Fields and Joe Adkins are charged with the murder of Judge Combs, of Perry county, is on trial at a special term at Barbourville, with Judge Brown, of London, on the bench.

LINE of fresh cakes at Warren & Shanks'.

ATTEND great clearance at Severance & Sons.

QUEENSWARE at reduced prices at Beazley & Carter's.

NEW wash goods including lawns, piques, linen, etc., at off regular price. Severance & Sons.

DALTON, reliable watch repairing.

Disc wheat drills, newest patterns of the Empire at Beazley & Carter's.

MASON'S jars and jelly glasses, cheap at Beazley & Carter's.

DR. W. I. LETCHER advertises his desirable farm at Paint Lick for sale. See ad.

JULY 1 is here. Don't wait but come at once and settle with me. H. C. Ruple.

If your hogs are not healthy try some Safe Hog Cholera Cure. Craig & Hocker.

LOST.—Pair of gold spectacles, one eye out, on street to post-office. Mrs. M. E. Welch.

We will store your wheat cheaper than you can handle it at home. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THE Hustonville Fair Co., will pay $1,500 in premiums at its exhibition to be held July 26 and the next two days.

DON'T forget that the L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets over the K. C. Sunday to Cincinnati at the low price of $1.25.

TIMBER LAND WANTED.—Any one having timber or timber land for sale will hear of a purchaser by consulting A. C. Sine, Stanford, Ky.

THE various booth privileges of the Hustonville fair July 26—three days—will be sold at auction at Hustonville at 2 P. M. Saturday, July 15.

LIBERAL.—In addition to their great low price clearance sale Severance & Sons are giving away during July some handsome china. See show window.

THIS office is now printing the catalogues of three fairs, requiring about 20,000 impressions. The Hustonville fair alone has about 10,000 impressions.

THE tax books are now ready and your taxes are due. Make it a point to come prepared to pay at July court as my time is limited. Sam M. Owens, Sheriff.

THE Somerset Banking Co., R. G. Hail, cashier, earned over 6 per cent. gross the last six months, paid a dividend of 3 per cent. and had over $2,500 left for expenses, taxes, &c.

THE reduction of the price of the subscription of the INTERIOR JOURNAL to $1 was a master stroke. We are now printing 5,000 papers a week and the cry is still the subscribers pour in.

THE premiums offered by the Hustonville Fair are the most liberal ever offered in Central Kentucky and they will bring stock from the four quarters. Hustonville people don't know how to do things by halves.

STOLEN.—A valuable bay mare belonging to Beazley Bros., the liverymen of this place, was stolen from Pruitt Bros' livery stable at Moreland last night. See "ad." in another column. B. G. Alford had driven her to place.

BILL LEE was tried twice Wednesday, first for house-breaking by Judge Carson and acquitted, and second by Judge Bailey for stealing Judge Varon's chickens and also acquitted. Lee had sold some chickens, but it couldn't be shown that they were stolen.

VEATCH.—W. R. Veatch, who married a daughter of F. G. Brady, of this place, died at Bradfordsville and was buried there at 10 o'clock yesterday. Consumption, with which he had been troubled for several years, caused his death. Besides his wife, two children, both grown, survive.

C. C. W.—Ernest Sims caught a $10 fine and a sentence of 25 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. While working with Baughman & Myers Bros' threshing Wednesday he drew the weapon on another Negro. In two hours after the offense was committed, Sims was paying the penalty in jail.

A SWEET SCENTED SHRUB.—A fellow who gave his name as O. W. Prather and claimed that he represented the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, spent several days at Mrs. Joe Coffey's boarding house and left without even saying "I'll pay you later." He undoubtedly represented the paper as the lying dispatch he sent to it about the disaffection here against Goebel proves. That's the kind of cattle that are fighting Goebel and trying to make it appear that the leading democrats are against him. They make their lies out of whole cloth to fool the unwary.

THE Casey County Stock Fair is to be held at Liberty, Aug. 1st, 2d and 3rd, with the following officers: President, John R. Whipp; Secretary, W. B. Cochran; Treasurer, S. Wesley. Directors, F. A. Land, Charles Overstreet, W. M. Myers, James Coulter, F. P. Combest, Calvin Crockett, C. D. Brown, D. G. Portman, Austin Thompson and John Goodin. The list includes liberal premiums for farm products and stock, besides $50 the first day for the 2:40 trot; $60 the second day for trot or pace and $50 in running race; $40 for double team trot or pace and $70 free for all trot of one mile on the 3rd day. Everybody knows what a delightful time is always had at the Liberty fair and thousands will be there.

FIVE bushels of chicken feed for $1 at J. H. Baughman & Co's mill.

JOHN H. MEIER sold 630 gallons of soda water on the glorious Fourth.

10 DOZ men's fine shirts at 4 price on sale Monday. Severance & Sons.

FOR RENT.—Store room on Main Street in INTERIOR JOURNAL building.

LOOK up that watch that needs repairing and leave it with Dalton court day.

THE Twice-a-Week INTERIOR JOURNAL is only $1 a year cash. Remember that.

JULY 1st is past, come and settle your account; I need the money. Mrs. Kate Dudderar.

BARGAIN.—Ladies' second-hand bicycle, almost good as new; 22 inch frame. Higgins & McKinney.

TO FARMERS.—I will buy your wheat at market price, to be delivered at Moreland or McKinney. D. S. Carpenter, Hustonville.

THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets via Richmond to Lexington at 14 fares July 11 and 12 limited to 14, on account of republican State convention.

TO THE PEN.—Sheriff S. M. Owens, Deputies W. L. Wood and C. B. Owens took the following prisoners convicted at the June term of court, to the Frankfort penitentiary yesterday morning: Henry Gilpin, one year for housebreaking; Burt Hampton, same, John Smith, one year for malicious cutting and wounding; Greenberry Bright, one year for stealing and Charlie Miller three years for house breaking.

CUT.—During the bicycle race Tuesday, Herman, the 15-year-old son of W. A. Lewis, asked John Lunsford, a boy of 16, why he told Jim Crabtree that he stole his apples and threatened to whip him, if he didn't correct it. Lunsford jerked up a rock and threw it at Lewis, knocking his hat off and as Lewis stooped down to pick up a rock slipped up and cut him to the bone in his arm. Lunsford was immediately arrested and his trial set for yesterday, when it was continued till tomorrow at 9 A. M. The boy is badly cut and as some leaders are severed it is feared that his fingers will be stiff.

DECEMBER AND MAY.—Old man Frank Foley, of the Highland section, who is three score ten and six years old, doesn't lose much time by the death of a wife and is on with the new almost before he is off with the old love. Not exceeding three months ago, he tearfully followed his third wife to the tomb. He didn't cry long, however, and drying his eyes, must have laid siege to the heart of Miss Lula Pulliam, a sweet sixteen, at once for yesterday he led her to the altar and made her his fourth wife. Mr. Foley is to be congratulated. It is not well for man to live alone, especially when he gets too old to take care of himself.

TO REDUCE THE BOUNDARY.—In order to gratify a few land owners, who do not want to pay the tax, the city council last night by a vote of 4 to 2 took the first step towards reducing the town boundary, which, if the action is permitted to stand, leaves out most of the lands of S. H. Baughman, J. S. Hocker, W. P. Tate, Mrs. Goodnight, S. J. Embry, H. Helm and D. W. Van deever. As two of the council directly interested, Messrs. Hundley and Rout, voted for the reduction, against the statute on the question, the action can not hold good and they may have to answer for it. There is no reason except the one given for wanting the boundary reduced and as it reduces the revenue of the town $400 or $500, the effort will likely be resisted to the bitter end. The other work of the council was to allow $500 on the rock being placed on Main Street and $1,400 to the Water Works for six months' rent. The other business was routine.

BRODHEAD.

The picnic at Gaines Adams' grove on the 4th was largely attended and it would have been an enjoyable affair had not whiskey flowed so freely. Rev. A. M. Lambert, of Crab Orchard, was the only speaker on hand, but he made a most appropriate and creditable talk of an hour. As stated above, there was abundant whiskey, not sold on the grounds, but brought there, and that no one was killed during the day, is almost a miracle. A general shooting bee came up in the afternoon, caused by an arrest and some 20 or more shots from dangerous looking pistols were fired. Nobody was hit by the flying bullets, strange to say, but Constable Taylor was badly beaten with a revolver. He was the only officer present and was trying to do his duty, but was completely overpowered by the "bad men from bitter creek" who were well tanked up. The sheriff and his deputies were all conspicuous for their absence.

Mrs. Martha Albright, mother of J. H. and A. E. Albright, died after a protracted illness and was buried at Bee Lick Tuesday. She was a most excellent lady and will be remembered for years to come for the many kind and charitable deeds she has done for the people of the Brodhead section.

There are some splendid homes in Brodhead and several others are under construction. Dr. Percy Benton has a veritable mansion near the fair grounds, while Rev. A. J. Pike is just completing a dwelling big enough for a colony of people. Frith & Dunn and Pullen Francisco, of the Frith Hotel, are both materially improving their places of business.

I was glad to find the democrats in that section so well pleased with the State ticket and I predict that Rock-castle will do her duty when the November election comes. There are not a dozen "sore" men in the county.

My old friend D. R. Totten, who although a republican, helps the democrats occasionally, is thinking about running for representative, and if he does, the democrat will stand a good show to win. The rads will likely nominate B. J. Bethurum and the votes that Mr. Totten will pull from him will very materially help the democratic nominee, whoever he be.

The fair is the all absorbing theme in and around Brodhead and vast arrangements for it are already being made. The officers say that the exhibition this year promises to greatly eclipse all previous efforts.

The amount of business done at Brodhead is surprising. People come down from Livingston and other points South to get the bargains offered by her merchants, who have large and well-kept stocks. There are few better stores in any town than those kept by Frith & Dunn, J. Thomas Cherry, Martin-Protheroe Co., J. H. Hilton and A. E. Albright.

I am indebted to Jacob Elder, of Bee Lick, for valuable assistance in getting new subscribers, &c.

W. A. Hall is rather discouraged over his wheat yield. He had in 59 acres and only got 308 bushels, which he sold to J. H. Baughman & Co., at 65c.

J. G. Martin lost a valuable milk cow from "black leg" and David Tudor a calf from the same cause yesterday.

Rev. W. S. Grinstead is holding a protracted meeting at Bethel church in Bath county, with good results.

Samuel Dudderar sold to Pony Beazley 10 two-year-old steers for Oct. 1 to 15 delivery at 44c.

W. S. Beazley & Bro. sold to J. B. Embry 193 1,600-pound export cattle a 5c.

The war department will issue rations for the flood sufferers in Texas.

General Wilson, a Taylor county farmer, was killed by a falling tree.

FOR SALE.—Sow and five pigs; also dry cow. Wm. Severance.

A THOUSAND TONGUES

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1123 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

The above cuts are representations of a few pieces of Handsomely Decorated, hand painted china, now on exhibition in our window, which we intend giving away free to our customers.

We guarantee that our prices on goods will remain the same. This Special Offer is made for the purpose of increasing our trade and showing the people that we truly appreciate their patronage.

This ware is rapidly taking the place of White Granite or Iron Stone China. It has that soft, white, velvety finish; is of the finest quality, and without doubt the best in the world. The shapes are the very latest patterns and have been designed to meet the tastes of the most fastidious.

It is only by our guaranteeing to use a large quantity of this ware that we have been able to get it at a price that puts it within the reach of all.

Our assortment consists of Cups and Saucers, Pie Plates, Breakfast Plates, Dinner Plates, Platters, Covered Dishes, Cream Pitchers, Sugar Bowls, Tea Pots, and everything else which goes to make up a FINE SET OF DISHES.

We will begin giving tickets with the amount of each cash purchase Saturday July 1st.

This China is given with purchases of $1 to $44.
